Boy Parts ELIZA CLARK

The word-of-mouth debut sensation.

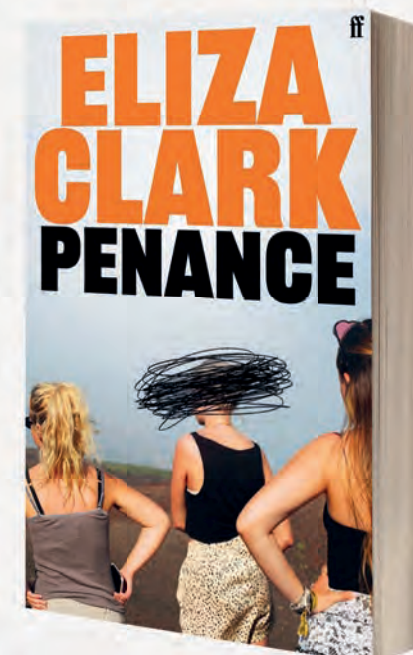

Irina obsessively takes explicit photographs of average-looking men she persuades to model for her. When she is offered an exhibition at a fashionable London gallery it triggers a self-destructive tailspin. This incendiary debut novel is a pitch-black comedy both shocking and hilarious, fearlessly exploring sexuality and gender roles in the twenty-first century.

Penance ELIZA CLARK

It's been years since the horrifying murder of a teenage girl in a northern seaside town. In this mock true crime story, Eliza Clark constructs interviews with witnesses and family, painstaking research and, correspondence with the killers themselves. The result is a riveting snapshot of lives rocked by tragedy, and a town left in turmoil – but how much of it is true?

Weirdo SARA PASCOE

Sophie flew to Australia (maxing out her credit card) so she could 'accidentally' bump into Chris and now he's here, in the pub she works in, in Essex. She's been trying not to think about him, as well as avoiding debt collection letters, her sister (who's engaged to her ex), and her current boyfriend, Ian. Sophie is about to find out how far she'll go to see if she has a future with Chris. If only she can work out how to behave like a normal person first.

Mistletoe Malice KATHLEEN FARRELL

The fire is on, sherry poured, presents wrapped, and claws are being sharpened . . . In a seaside cottage perched on a cliff, one family reunites for Christmas. While snow falls, a tyrannical widowed matriarch presides over her unruly brood. Her niece tends to her whims, but fantasises about eloping; and as more guests arrive, each bringing their secret truths and dreams, the Christmas tree explodes, a brawl erupts, an escape occurs and 'midwinter madness' climaxes.

A Guest in the House EMILY CARROLL

Abby has settling into married life with David and her stepdaughter Crystal. She's proud of the life she has built, and wants to believe they will all be happy. But what really happened to Crystal's mother, the artist who no-one speaks of? What secrets does their strange house harbour, and what of Abby's old dreams and fears, of Lady Grey, the Knight and the Dragons?

A chilling and contemporary gothic graphic novel – a story of grief, ghosts, and the struggle to be true to oneself.

The Taming of the Cat HELEN COOPER

From twice-Kate Greenaway winner comes an exquisite, beautifully illustrated story within a story, featuring a mouse forced to tell stories to save his life, and a cat who plans to eat said mouse as soon as the story is finished. The mouse's story – of a princess who does not wish to be married – is a modern fairy tale about tolerance, outsiders, and non-traditional partnerships.

Merry Whatmas?

EOIN MCLAUGHLIN

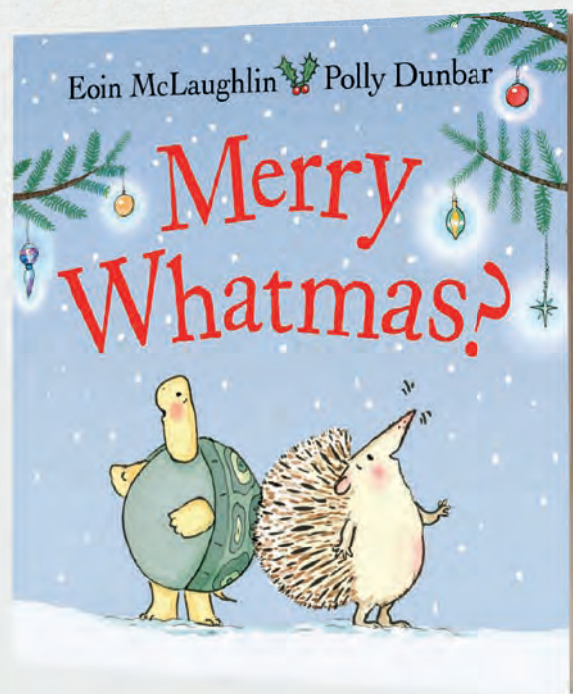

Fox thinks Christmas is about presents, Badger thinks it's about pudding, Magpie thinks it's about singing, and Tortoise and Hedgehog begin to feel rather overwhelmed with all the noise and fuss. But in a quiet moment of reflection they learn the most important lesson of all . . .

With over a quarter of a million copies sold in the series, everyone's favourite Hedgehog and Tortoise are back with the message that Christmas is about being with the ones you love.
